

UBC TRANSFORMATIVE EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

Overview

Transformative Educational Leadership Program (TELP) BC is ideal for individuals in the British Columbia K-12 system and other connected sectors, who are interested in system transformation. This one-year, cohort-based program is for highly-motivated individuals who already have a master's degree and want to expand their world-view, gain new experiences and raise their academic credentials to new levels.

Led by Dr. Judy Halbert and Dr. Linda Kaser, sessions will include relevant and informed collaborative professional inquiry alongside innovative researchers, practitioners, and world-class scholars. Participants will develop the capacity to transform themselves and their communities by exploring and engaging in current research, dialogue and debate about major challenges and opportunities facing school districts.

Key Outcomes

PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- Become part of highly professional and engaged networks, centred around exceptional leadership capacity.
- Be well prepared to lead system change.
- Be an integral part of shaping the educational system and be ambassadors for future leaders.
- Earn further academic experience to enhance application into post-graduate degree programs.

"TELP BC has far surpassed my expectations in providing world class leadership, educational knowledge, phenomenal guest speakers and the inspiration to be part of positive change."

"The TELP BC sessions, were, without a doubt, one of the most valuable learning experiences that I have ever engaged in. I wholeheartedly recommend this opportunity to any educator looking to be challenged, grow and connect with what is current in education in our province, country and the world."

2021/2022 Program Details

TELP BC is a fully online program with both synchronous and asynchronous learning throughout the year.

The program includes a series of Friday evening and Saturday morning sessions, and a 3-day event in July. There will be ample opportunities for collaboration and connections through supported reading groups, online discussion forums and regular contact with the instructional team.

TELP BC is designed to equip participants to address the challenges of system change through the application of an evidence-informed inquiry framework, current learning resources, and access to local leaders and global thinkers.
